- Together, identify the full date every morning (Ex: Today is Wednesday, December 11th, 2020)
 - Practice counting to twenty.
 - Identify what day of the week it is today and what day of the week tomorrow will be.
 - Remind him/her when the time of day has changed (morning, afternoon, evening, night).
 - Discuss when it is a.m. and p.m. throughout your days together.
 - If writing practice is sent home, please try to practice a little bit of it with your child every day.
 - This does not need to be enforced, merely encouraged.
 - Please send back what is completed to school in your child's take-home folder.
 - Play tic-tac-toe with your child - students are still acquiring the skill/practice of trying to outsmart the other player and get "three in a row."

Things you can do to help your child make the most of this week:

- Practice the sound for the letter L - Love, Laugh, Lamb, Lion, Lamp
- Practice counting by 2's
- Go out for a walk
 - Talk about the kinds of trees you see
 - Talk about what season it is and how the leaves and flowers are beginning to bloom
- Practice identifying your right and left.
- Talk about lying and why it is harmful to ourselves and others.
- Discuss the importance of truth, as the character in The Empty Pot learned about it also.
